RE: CORRUPTION AND KIDNAPPING

IN EXPARTE BAIN Jr, 121 U.S. 1 (1887) The U.S.. Supreme Court said: "Absent Authorized Jurisdiction to Render Judgment, This Court will Order Defendant Discharged From Custody." Id

As a matter of constitutional law, where a trial court lacks jurisdiction over the case, it has no power to do anything but strike the case from its docket. John-Manvill Corp v United States 855 F2d 1556 (1988).

The statute concerning this jurisdiction issue is plain and unambiguous on its face. The statute reads: "Immediately on concluding the examination. the court must certify and transmit to the court before which the defendant is bound to appear, the prosecutor's authorization for a warrant application, the complaint, copy of the registry of action, The Examination Return, and any Recognizances received. MCL 766.15 (1); MSA 28.933 (1). This is statutory law in Michigan!

The Michigan Supreme Court, in Dimmers v Hillsdale Circuit Judge, Supra, proclaimed: The rule of construction in criminal cases, so far as statutes are concerned is that statutes must be construed.. In favor of the Defendant where his substantial rights are concerned, strictly construde and in the absence of ambiguity. There is no room for reasoning as to the intention of the legislature 289 Mich at 486 (The same in dunigan supra, A Juvenile case) The Michigan Supreme Court held.

Kim Worthy and the DPD response from the county of Wayne clearly on the following date exposes judicial misconduct, malicious prosecution, prosecutorial misconduct, ineffective assistance of trial and appellate counsel, cause they knew these records never existed. See MCR 600.420 cause if they did the record would always exist, proving I was unlawfully kidnapped and put through an illegal judicial process that violated my 1st, 4th, 5th, 6th, 8th, and 14th federal constitutional rights that the 9th amendment clearly states no one can impede on, but the have for 23 years now!

Dear Mr. Pinson,

Enclosed is the affidavit you requested from me along with the FOIA letters I filed and the response letters I received from DPD and the Wayne County Prosecutor's Office. I also mailed a copy of the affidavit, unsigned, to your father since he is my client.

I hope this will be helpful.

It seems shameful and a bit suspicious to me that the system can put a man in prison for life and then claim that all of the evidence used to convict him has been lost.

Sincerely,

Scott Lewis

54 pages were reviewed and 23 pages are being released.

Document(s) were located which originated with, or contained information concerning, other Government Agency (ies) [OGA].

This information has been referred to the OGA(s) for review and direct response to you.

We are consulting with another agency. The FBI will correspond with you regarding this information when the consultation is completed.

In accordance with standard FBI practice and pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(7)(E) and Privacy Act exemption (j)(2) [5 U.S.C. § 552/552a (b)(7)(E)/(j)(2)], this response neither confirms nor denies the existence of your subject's name on any watch lists.

For your information, Congress excluded three discrete categories of law enforcement and national security records from the requirements of the FOIA. See 5 U.S.C. § 552(c) (2006 & Supp. IV (2010)). This response is limited to those records that are subject to the requirements of the FOIA. This is a standard notification that is given to all our requesters and should not be taken as an indication that excluded records do, or do not, exist. Enclosed for your information is a copy of the Explanation of Exemptions.

For questions regarding our determinations, visit the www.fbi.gov/foia website under "Contact Us." The FOIPA Request Number listed above has been assigned to your request. Please use this number in all correspondence concerning your request. Your patience is appreciated.

You may file an appeal by writing to the Director, Office of Information Policy (OIP), United States Department of Justice, Suite 11050, 1425 New York Avenue, NW, Washington, D.C. 20530-0001, or you may submit an appeal through OIP's FOIAonline portal by creating an account on the following web site: <https://foiaonline.regulations.gov/foia/action/public/home>. Your appeal must be postmarked or electronically transmitted within sixty (60) days from the date of this letter in order to be considered timely. If you submit your appeal by mail, both the letter and the envelope should be clearly marked "Freedom of Information Act Appeal." Please cite the FOIPA Request Number assigned to your request so that it may be easily identified.

You may seek dispute resolution services by contacting the Office of Government Information Services (OGIS) at 877-684-6448, or by emailing ogis@nara.gov. Alternatively, you may contact the FBI's FOIA Public Liaison by emailing foipaquestions@ic.fbi.gov. If you submit your dispute resolution correspondence by email, the subject heading should clearly state "Dispute Resolution Services." Please also cite the FOIPA Request Number assigned to your request so that it may be easily identified.

The enclosed material is from the main investigative file(s) in which the subject(s) of your request was the focus of the investigation. Our search located additional references, in files relating to other individuals, or matters, which may or may not be about your subject(s). Our experience has shown when ident, references usually contain information similar to the information processed in the main file(s). Because of our significant backlog, we have given priority to processing only the main investigative file(s). If you want the references, you must submit a separate request for them in writing, and they will be reviewed at a later date, as time and resources permit.

See additional information which follows.

Sincerely,

David M. Hardy

Enclosure(s)

In response to your Freedom of Information/Privacy Acts (FOIPA) request, enclosed is a processed copy of the documents responsive to your request.

 For your information, a search of the indices to our Central Records System reflected there were additional records potentially responsive to your /Privacy Acts (FOIPA) request. We have attempted to obtain this material so it could be reviewed to determine whether it was responsive to your request. We were advised that the potentially responsive records were not in their expected location and could not be located after a reasonable search. Following a reasonable waiting period, another attempt was made to obtain this material. This search for the missing records also met with unsuccessful results.

The enclosed documents responsive to your request are exempt from disclosure in their entirety pursuant to the Privacy Act, Title 5, United States Code, Section 552(a), subsection (j)(2). However, these records have been processed pursuant to the Freedom of Information Act, Title 5, United States Code, Section 552, thereby affording you the greatest degree of access authorized by both laws.
